Presentation to Mr. Harry Miner

A large congregation assembled in United Church Sunday evening on the occasion of Father's Day.

Following the regular service Rev. Hunt asked a few of the elders to take seats in the front row, these including Mr. Garrett, Mr. Miner and Mr. Layercraft, then explained that the congregation wished on this day to pay special tribute to the Sr. elder, who had so long and so faithfully served the church.

Miss Frances Jones then read the following address, after which Mr. Layercraft presented to Mr. Miner an Hearing-Aid which will enable him to hear the services more clearly.

Dear Mr. Miner—
On this Father's Day we are thinking of what the fathers of our homes, our community and our church have done for us in building up the life of this new country. As you are the senior upon our session we wish to recall the fatherly interest you have taken in the young folk of the Cheadle and Strathmore communities, as well as being a grand neighbor to all.

You have served faithfully for many years as one of the town fathers giving sympathetic consideration to the wellbeing of Strathmore. In your own family you are a father, a grandfather and a great-grandfather and also a grandfather to the little children of the homes where you have made daily calls as a dairyman.

In the church we also say "a grand father who has always shown interest in the work of the C. G. I. T. and in any young folk taking part in church work. Older folk have known they could obtain good counsel and thoughtful help at any time."

So to you, as one of our spiritual fathers, we say, "may you be long blessed with health to be active in our fellowship and may this gift remind you of our sincere and lasting appreciation."

Ever your friends,
Of the Cheadle and Strathmore Communities.

Mr. Miner was greatly surprised but was greatly pleased at this expression of Good-will on the part of so many and warmly expressed his thanks.

Friends were present from Cheadle Lyalta and Strathmore.

Rev. Hunt sang a suitable solo then closed the service with congregational singing of two verses of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

A very happy social hour was enjoyed at the Miner home, when Mrs. May entertained at a Family Party consisting Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miner and daughter Mrs. D. McKay and Mrs. Allistair McKay of Keoma and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cowell of Lyalta and Rev. and Mrs. Hunt.

KILLED IN ACTION

Word has been received by Strathmore friends that Jack Robinson of Gleichen, who has been overseas for some time with the Canadian Active Army, has been killed in action.

He spent several summers in Strathmore prior to enlistment in the employ of Mr. M. S. Hirtle. He played in the Strathmore-Gleichen band and took a prominent part in all young people's activities. Jack had a host of friends in Strathmore, who extend sincere sympathy to his family.

● Hold Over Old Wheat for Poultry.— Shortly after harvesting operations commence each year, the Poultry Branch and the Provincial Veterinary Laboratory receive numerous enquiries regarding sick and dying poultry. Many of these birds are found to be suffering from Enteritis, as a result of feeding newly threshed wheat taken from the separator or combine.

Unless wheat is allowed to age for at least thirty days before it is fed to poultry the digestive disturbance known as enteritis occurs. The larger the percentage of green kernels in the wheat, the more acute will be the situation and the higher the mortality.

● B. C. Asks help with Fruit Harvest Women workers between the ages of 18 and 45 are needed for fruit picking in British Columbia, and Alberta women are being asked to assist in this work. The immediate need is for berry pickers, but tree fruit pickers may be required later.

Going dates are between June 12th. and July 20th. Workers who go to British Columbia under orders of the National Selective Service will have their fares paid from their home stations to points in British Columbia. Return transportation will be provided for the sum of $5.00 between September 15th. and October 31st. providing the receipt obtained with the going ticket is presented.

In rural areas, those interested in this work may apply to the nearest District Agriculturist who will be able to supply information.

● Award Made to Alberta Credit Union League.—

At a banquet given in the evening of May 13, by the Credit Union National Association of the United States at Madison, Wisconsin, a plaque was presented to Mr. J. Robertson, the Alberta representative for CUNA. This plaque was awarded to Alberta to commemorate the fact that the league had obtained the greatest number of new credit unions in proportion to its population. During 1943 Alberta gained 55 new credit unions, which surpassed the record of any other league.

behalf of the Members presented her with a beautiful Sterling Spoon, accompanied with best wishes for all happiness in the future. Mrs. Hunt read a very fine poem entitled "Friend ship".

Mrs. Gray expressed her thanks for the kindness and good wishes in very fitting words. Good-byes were said and another leaf in Life's Book turned.

CAPT. RITSON-BENNETT, D. C. O. INSPECTS ARMY CADETS

Thursday, June 15th, Capt. Ritson-Bennett, District Cadet Officer, inspected the Strathmore Royal Canadian Army Cadets.

In spite of Chicken-pox and Mumps 35 Cadets were on parade in full dress to make this one of the best annual inspections.

At 2.30 the Cadets were called on parade by Sgt. Hagen. In column of route, led by 2/Lieut. J. Crellin and Cadet Lieut. Van Tighem, the Corps marched smartly from the school grounds up Railway Avenue and Main Street to the Memorial Hall.

The Cadets were then drawn up in platoon and inspected by the D. C. O.

The Cadets moved in single file from the hall to a spare lot on First Street reformed platoon in preparation for the march past.

Led by Cadet Lieut. Van Tighem the Cadets marched past the Saluting base first in column of route and then in close column of platoon. The D. C. O. took the salute. The Strathmore Legion was represented at the Saluting base by the President, Mr. J. Sharp and the Past President, Mr. C. Way.

Following the March Past the Cadets gave a demonstration of Arrow Head Formations, with which the D. C. O. was well pleased with the manner in which the cadets conducted themselves.

Again back in the Hall a demonstration of signalling both Morse and Semaphore was given by Cadets Schober and Wawvig.

Sgt. Hagen and Cadets Schober and Wawvig demonstrated the correct method of handling a rifle, in the prone, kneeling and standing position. Attention was drawn to correct positions, faults and their corrections.

Following dismissal the Cadets gave about the D. C. O. who, after praising them for their excellent display offered suggestions for improvement. The D. C. O. pointed out clearly to the cadets the merits of their training. He urged that as many as possible attend Cadet Camp, to be held at Camp Sarcee, July 17 to 27.

LIONS CONVENTION AT LETHBRIDGE

Lions W. E. Springthorpe, Walter Mercer and George Risdon, delegates to the International Convention at Lethbridge last week report an exceedingly enjoyable time and a very worthwhile Convention.

Registration was made at the Marquis Hotel Thursday where each Lion was presented with a souvenir neckerchief, with the Lion insignia thereon.

At 2 p.m. the party was taken through No. 8 E. & G. School where the delegates were divided in groups of 10 and escorted by a qualified official who made the tour through most interesting and informative.

At 6 p.m. the District Officer's Dinner was held at which President E. Anderson presided.

The "Mixer Dance" in the Trianon Ball Room, was one of the high lights of entertainment, everyone entering into the spirit in full glee. Music by Harlem Sextet of Montana was a rare delight.

The Spirit of "Hands Across the Border" prevailed throughout the Convention. The Flag Presentation where the Flags of all the Allies were united was a very beautiful feature. Glen Milesen, formerly of Strathmore was one of the boys representing the Navy in this formation.

Excellent addresses by the various officers and visitors were a marked feature of the Convention.

Strathmore received a warm ovation when Secretary Springthorpe told of the success of the Lions Auction Sale last Fall. This event out-reached any other similar collection of funds.

Space forbids a more detailed report, but the Convention both as to interesting entertainment and worthwhile discussion were of an excellent order.

The Searchlight

— BY SPECTATOR —

OTTAWA— Sober optimism, gravity over the colossal issue at stake, and pride in the part being played by the boys from Canada—these are the impressions you get these days when you look down from the gallery on the members of the house of commons. You are conscious of the kinship that exists among these representatives of the people from Prince Edward Island to British Columbia, submerging political partisan feelings. There may be a political campaign going on in Saskatchewan, but there is another campaign of vastly greater significance going on in Normandy where British troops with Americans and our own Canadians are returning the visit of William the Conqueror, over exactly the same stretch of water, but with what a different object, the release of France and the world from the pestilence of slavery. With what full hearts all members joined with their brothers from Quebec in singing the Marseillaise, followed by God Save the King. In that memorable moment the Canadian parliament became a representative assembly not only of Canada and of the British Commonwealth but of a New France and of the United Nations.

Emergency Manpower Regulations— One of the major objectives of the new call to the Canadian people to strengthen their manpower ranks is to get more women into essential industry. The approach is made with characteristic courtesy towards the fair sex, and with a kind of diffidence that doubtless makes the women themselves wonder, but it is very earnest. One out of every 3 or 4 persons engaged in war industry is a woman. The work of women in the manufacture of ammunition, in building aircraft and even in many heavy industries has been invaluable. In processes requiring extreme care and precision and in inspection, it is acknowledged that women have the edge on the men, while in various kinds of plants they are quite the equal of the men. It is not that women have not been doing a fine job, and that they have not responded well, but this is a time when the manpower and the womanpower of the country must be strained to the utmost if freedom is to survive. Women are asked for part time as well as full time work. A special call is made for women for plants where shells are filled. The need for more shells is obvious when we think of the massed artillery fire of our men in France as well as in Italy.

The manpower regulations have been sharpened into what is really an emergency code. These regulations have not been greatly changed but they are given wider application and are to be carried out vigorously. The selective service survey now applies to all industrial and commercial plants. It does not include agriculture because agriculture has its own severe labour difficulties and needs many more men. With the exception of those working on farms all men between 16 and 40 whether they are working in essential or non-essential industries will be included in the close inquiry. When selective service officials investigate a business, they will see whether there are men of military age who have had their military training postponed. They will be sent to military training camps unless it is definitely shown that war production will be interfered with by their removal. Production methods must be tightened up, and no surplus men will be allowed to remain in a business. They will be sent to other essential employment. The object of the survey is of course to get men into the kind of work where they will be making their maximum contribution to the cause for which all are fighting. In this crisis it is naturally assumed that there will be the fullest co-operation between men and employers and the selective service officials. An employer and the man himself will immediately agree to his transfer to a more essential job. The compulsory transfer regulations, subject to rights of appeal for the individual, will now apply to a wider range of industries.

Farm Credit—

All members of parliament, particularly those representing farming constituencies are following with the deepest interest the new farm credit plan that is being presented to the house. It is embodied in the Farm Improvement Loan Act. It is an important part of the general program to get the financial machinery of the country in shape to help the production of goods and the country's export trade when the war is over. In the case of agriculture it is to create a working plan to enable the banks to advance the credit needed for farmers to increase the efficiency of their operations and improve their home and buildings. The banks will be guaranteed up to ten per cent of the aggregate loans they make. The guarantee will apply to the buying of farm implements and equipment, the purchase of livestock and for general improvements. Loans up to $3,000 to any individual farmer, bearing a maximum rate of 5 per cent will come under the 10 per cent guarantee. Loans for farm improvements will cover a longer period than those for implements and equipments. In the banking and commerce committee the question will be discussed whether it will be possible to include a change in the legislation on banking which will cover some kind of provision against crop failures. This would strike at the root of the farmer's greatest problem, the uncertainty of the weather.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH ALBERTA?

In a survey of Stamp Sales throughout the Dominion of Canada the National War Finance Committee pointed out that the purchase of Stamps in Alberta are the lowest in the Dominion.

In view of the excellent record Alberta always makes during Victory Loans the yare unable to account for the poor showing of the Province where War Savings Stamp purchases are concerned. They point out, quite rightly, that War Savings Stamps are one of the best investments available in Canada today. Every $4.00 worth of Stamps purchased rewards the purchaser with $5.00 return at the end of 7 years, which is at the rate of about

A rainbow in the sky;
So was it when my life began;
So is it now I am a man;

Or let me die!
The Child is father of the Man;

Campers Beware of Poison Ivy

In the comprehensive arrangements of the Canadian authorities for the training and welfare of the fighting forces, the evil effect of poison ivy was not overlooked. Of all skin-irritant plants in North America, poison ivy is one of the worst. It grows under a variety of conditions, wet or dry, shaded or exposed, and in any soil from pure sand or rocky round to rich woods or field. It is often plentiful in stretches of unoccupied land.

But because poison ivy is prevalent on shores and rocky situations especially by wooded lakes and highland regions so attractive to campers and summer cottagers, the danger of poisoning should always be borne in mind, for the simple reason that in these out-of-the-way places it is difficult to get rid of the plant. Full description of the plant and its several different habits of growth, together with information on treatment after contact are given in Circular 574 "Poison Ivy", which may be obtained by writing to Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

If Canada and the United Nations had depended upon "Armchair Soldiers" to fight this war, the Nazis and Japs would have grabbed this country long ago.

There is no "Royal Road" to Berlin. It's fighting all the way and Canada's Army needs every man it can get. That's why, today, you should volunteer for overseas service. You'll need months of intensive training to make you fighting-fit.

Don't be a stay-at-home and let the other fellow do it. Get into a man's uniform with the G.S. badge of honour on your sleeve. If we're going to win this war, we'll have to do more than just read about it in the papers;

THIS COTTON PLUFF

THE feeling of annoyance at this cotton pluff is so intense and general that all citizens will welcome action taken by the Town Council to prevent this for the years to come. It is said the life of the cotton pluff is about 29 years, but if the tops are cut one man informed as they would be for a hundred years.

It would be a simple matter to have the tops of all these trees cut. A weeks work on the part of three or four men in the Fall would rid the Town of this dangerous nuisance and earn the gratitude of the citizens next summer.

New Superintendent of Wildlife Resources

OTTAWA — The appointment of Mr. Harrison F. Lewis to the position of Superintendent of Wildlife Protection in the Lands, Parks and Forests Branch, of the Department of Mines and Resources, has been announced by the Minister, Honourable T. A. Crerar. Dr. Lewis succeeds Hoyes Lloyd who resigned at the end of 1943 after 25 years' service.

The importance of Canada's wildlife resources and the part that they might play in the post-war years is well recognized, and Dr. Lewis's training and background particularly fit him for a position of such great possibilities and responsibilities. In his boyhood days in Nova Scotia he manifested a strong interest in wildlife, an interest which was later developed in the more formal channels of science at Acadia University, where he obtained a B. A. degree in 1917. In 1924 he received the degree of M. A. from the University of Toronto, and in 1929 the Ph. D. degree from Cornell University. Since 1924 Dr. Lewis has served as Chief Federal Migration Bird Officer for Ontario and Quebec. In that time he has increased his proficiency in the French language, which has contributed much to his success in carrying out efficiently his duties in connection with the administration of the Migratory Birds Convention Act. He is a Fellow of the American Ornithologists Union and is actively associated with a number of Canadian organizations interested in the preservation of wildlife.

The extent and national importance of Canada wildlife resources are not sufficiently well known. Over an area of more than 50% of Canada's territory wildlife resources are the principal support of human population. Over an area of about 550,000 square miles primarily agricultural, wildlife is an important resource; while on Canadian land primarily forest-producing, amounting to about one million square miles, wildlife, though a subordinate resource, is relatively more productive than on agricultural land.

The most recent estimate of the practical value of wildlife in Canada shows an annual harvest calculated at $22,714,000 the principal item being fur. The possibility of greater wild development as part of Canada's post-war reconstruction programme was recently presented in a brief to the Parliamentary Committee on Reconstruction and Re-establishment un-

Strawberry Prices Drop—

EDMONTON — Seasonal reduction in the price ceiling on strawberries will make a difference to the consumer of around nine cents a quart and seven cents a pint, officials of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board point out. Based on transportation charges here, prices in Edmonton will be 35 cents a quart and 18 cents a pint. Price reductions will be relative to these charges, not all Alberta markets.

The Food Industry's MARCH TO BERLIN

Come On Folks!
BUY WAR STAMPS 25¢

See the chairmanship of Mr. Gray Thurston. It is evident that in a country with the distribution of land quality that Canada possesses, wildlife resources hold a place of special national importance. Since these being resources, it comes to us as a surprise to find that they are so neglected. Their preservation should not be permitted to diminish. There is no doubt that by wise and proper treatment that importance can be greatly augmented.

That is why the position of Superintendent of Wildlife Protection assumes such an important role at this time in the history of Canada. Dr. Lewis is a strong supporter of wildlife management and is author of more than 200 papers on wild birds and mammals. He brings to his task the training, experience and enthusiasm necessary to insure the maximum scientific development, as well as the most intelligent use of Canada's wildlife resources.

Alternating action pulsator (milking two teats at a time), as well as single action, now available.

New sanitary claw, with "straight-through" design.

New beaded teat cup shells and new inflations.

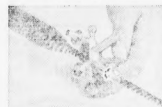

New milker head with rounded under surface.

New wide-mouth pall.

Stainless steel at all points where milk touches metal.

Get the most from your cows with the new McCormick-Deering milker. Here is machine milking at its best.

Ask Us for a Demonstration!

The new McCormick-Deering Milker claw has a "straight-through" design that means thorough, easy cleaning. The smooth beaded finish of the milk lines makes them easy to rinse.

How's this for an easy-to-clean, no-seam stainless steel milker pall? The wider top means better circulation of air in cleaning, easier pouring. No hiding places for dirt and bacteria in this unit.

The old question of the correct plural of "mongoose" was bothering a biology professor lately. He wrote to the dealer, "Please send me two mongooses."

That didn't look right so he started again and wrote, "Please send me two mongooses."

He tore that up and finally wrote, "Please send me a mongoose. If I've got a friend, I'll take it."

INVITING YOUR PATRONAGE

When harvesting starts this season considerable space will be available for deliveries of grain in country elevators. Many customers of Alberta Pool Elevators have been prevented from delivering to these elevators in the past few years due to congestion of facilities. This fall they will likely have the opportunity of again becoming patrons of this farmers' grain organization.

F. W. GERSHAW WRITES FROM OTTAWA

A special Oil Treatment has been worked out by Shoe manufacturers. This will lengthen by 25% the life of sole leather in footwear and the public is all for it. Is it not reasonable that there should be more shoe factories in the West? The hides are there and certainly there are many shoes worn. The market might just absorb the production of an economic unit. Then there is the question of getting more Woolen Mills. It was once thought that our western wool was not sufficiently good in quality. The strands were not uniform in size and there was too much chaff and too many burrs in the wool. This does not really apply. I am now wearing a suit on Sundays made entirely of Alberta produced wool and find it to be of good average quality.

Some of our Manitoba Plants in the district are admirably suited for the making of Agricultural implements and could be used for such purposes after the war.

There must be concrete and adequate evidence of gratitude for the fighting forces and their dependents. They are the ones who are making the real sacrifices. Then there must be Social Security so that poverty will never raise its hideous head again. All favor these measures and definite steps are being taken and have been taken to realize them. Public money must be used for such things as roads, schools and irrigation schemes. There is a place, however, for sound enterprise to provide employment and increase the national income which alone can make the Social Security plans ample and enduring.

Cigarettes will now reach the forces without risk or delay. A bank of supplies has been established in Italy and others are being set up in the invasion areas. The labels only need be indicated and the department will supply the brand from the stock right in the battle area.

OTTAWA LETTER

F. W. GERSHAW, M. P.

Stupendous events abroad have overshadowed interest in local affairs this week. News of the progress of the invasion is anxiously awaited. More and more it is being realized that the real sacrifices are being made by the youth of this generation. More and more earnestly Post-war plans are being worked out to give those who return not charity and not cheers alone but the opportunities they will have so nobly won for re-establishing themselves. The hope is that the misery, suffering and grimness of war can be replaced by the glamour and happiness of building a better civilization for all.

In case there is a general election called an Act is being passed to give everyone in uniform the privilege of casting a secret vote. Those who are prisoners of war will be able to vote by proxy. The time at which the returning officer for each electoral district will add up the number of votes cast for the several candidates shall not be earlier than Tuesday the eighth day after polling day. This is to provide time for the special returning officers to count the votes cast by War service electors.

"Official nominating day will be 28 days before polling day".

Those in the Canadian Legion War Services, the Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus, news service and all auxiliary agencies will be provided with ballots. Convalescing and Hospital patients, nurses, attendants and Staff officers are all included.

The voter will be given a ballot. When he has marked it in secret he places it in an inner plain envelope. This is then placed in an outer envelope so there can be no identification.

About one week after voting day the Chief Electoral officer shall notify the returning officer of each district as to the number of votes cast for each candidate by the War electors. This number shall then be entered as if it were a return from a poll by a deputy returning officer.

All the plans were reviewed by a Committee of all parties of the House and this group were all convinced that the arrangements were the best possible.

Canada Shares With Prisoners—

With the ten millionth Red Cross Prisoner of War parcel going out from the Toronto packing centre this week, Canada listed vast quantities of food supplies sent to her sons now prisoners of war. From only one, of five such centres went 10 million lbs. of butter, 10 million pounds of jam, five million pounds of canned salmon, five million pounds of sugar, thousands of pounds of tea and coffee, plus chocolate bars, packages of biscuits, tinned meat, packages of raisins and soap in the millions.

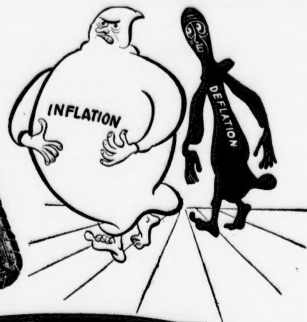

This, say Prices Board officials, is one answer to the queries about controlled distribution, and rationing of food at home.

Eggs are "Gold" to Boys in Italy—

Pte. George Sprunt writing from Italy to his mother in Toronto says, "You may be surprised to know that we pay for one egg 24 lire, and I must say that is quite dear for one egg." Twenty-four lire for one hen's egg is $1.44 Canadian money (based on the approximate value of the Italian lire just prior to outbreak of war in 1939). Then eggs sold in Italy for around half a lire each. That's why our boys in Italy think hens lay golden eggs.

Footwear Labels Protect Consumer—

OTTAWA—To safeguard the buying public against quality degradation all footwear made in Canada after June 20 must bear the name of the administrator of footwear annouces, and Trade Board license number, the administrator of footwear annouces. This method of identification is already in effect for a large number of types of clothing, for the same purpose. Alberta consumers will see the WPTB tag and number or ready-made

Inflation and Deflation... Evil Companions

Past wars have always brought some degree of inflation.

Goods were scarce... Prices and wages sky rocketed to unnatural heights.

Then one day the war stopped...

In due time goods became plentiful again.

Scarcity prices could no longer be demanded and "spiralling" prices went "pop" and came down with a bang.

people stopped buying because they thought prices would go still lower merchandise dropped in value—retailers went bankrupt factories closed and unemployment followed farms were foreclosed distress was general and deflation was in the saddle.

That is why in this war prices are controlled—so that they will not ruin buyers in a rise or sellers in a slump.

Price ceilings—wage and salary controls—rationing—Victory Bonds—increased taxation—are all part of a grand strategy to head off inflation—thus preventing Deflation.

PREVENTION OF INFLATION IS THE BEST PROTECTION AGAINST DEFLATION

garments from hats to baby dresses, and are advised to keep these tags for evidence in any protest against quality.

Imported footwear is not affected by the new order.

Recent anti-zoot suit riots in Montreal, in which young men wearing such weird garments were chased by highly indignant sailors, calls attention to the fact that under the regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board zoot suits have been "out" for a considerable time and their manufacture is a breach of the law.

Administrator's Order A-307 specifies that the coat of a man's suit can not exceed 29½ inches for a size 38, and shall have no "trimmings". No pair of trousers may have a width at the knee of more than 22½ inches for a size 32 waist, and they must not have pleats or other flights of sartorial fancy.

The zoot suiters wear a coat that comes to just two inches above the knee in front and slightly longer than that at the back. The trousers are at least 30 inches wide at the knee and sometimes reach almost to the armpits and the suit has belts and pleats and all sorts of "fixings".

The enforcement branch of the War Time Prices and Trade Board at Montreal is taking action against the manufacture of the delirious dreams of draped "drips".

ANNOUNCEMENT TEA

— The Seattle Star, May 22 —
Biggest announcement news breaking around Seattle over the weekend was the engagement announcement that came as quite a surprise to most of us attending Mrs. Walter Isaac's tea on Sunday afternoon.

The tea was given to honor Mrs. Isaac's sister-in-law, Mrs. William E. Julian, of Strathmore, Alberta, but as it happened, the party served a double duty. It was also the announcement party for Mrs. Julian's pretty daughter, Jane Julian. Jane's engagement to Ensign Carl Miskimen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miskimen of Seattle was made known. Ensign Miskimen is now attending naval school in Yorkton, Va. Jane is a senior at the University of Washington and a member of the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. So far the wedding date is still a military secret, but keep your eyes open for future announcements.

The Isaacs' home was breathtakingly lovely with its many arrangements of deep purple and vivid colored iris. Being the honors at the tea table during the afternoon were—Mrs. Cyril Taylor, Mrs. Richard Tyler, Mrs. J. K. Bush, Mrs. Sargent Powell, Mrs. Howard Race and Mrs. Howard Wright. Edwin Hanson was on May 18th, granted a commission as a mechanic in the R. C. A. F.

Prior to enlistment he attended High School in Namaka and Strathmore later taking a course in Automotive Electricity and Diesel Engineering at National Schools, California. He enlisted in the Air Force in the fall of 1940 and went overseas a year later.

Since that time he has gone to school a large part of the time. Has attended the University of Edinburgh for nine months before being commissioned, and is now serving as technical adjutant temporarily before starting another four month University course.

Edwin has the opportunity to complete his training in Edinburgh and get a degree after the war. As a commissioned officer as a mechanic is very rare, it is something to be quite proud of.

Chairman Ridley introduced and called on Mr. Baker for an address. Mr. Baker was most enthusiastic over the success of Strathmore's canvas and brought the thanks of the Provincial organization. He said that more subscriptions had been received from this Unit than any other unit in Alberta.

A game of Bingo was an interesting and paying interlude at this point $5.00 War Savings Certificates being won by the four successful players.

Mr. Fulton next gave an enthusiastic story of the work of canvassers who worked so zealously that the result of their total canvas was overwhelming. They had asked for 25% increase and had added up the handsome sum of $262,800. The first Victory Loan totalled $37,000.

Mr. Fulton explained that the district was broken into 3 divisions, with the following amounts taken in—East $18,900; North-west, $107,750; S. W. $110,750. He created amusement by telling of the rivalry between two elevator men J. Dunnett and J. H. Dixon of Dalmead and Indus, who, after a close race closed with less than $200 difference in a $35,000 aim.

He related the effort of M. McElroy to outsell Mr. E. Lauritzen, but the latter stood at the top of the list of the Units Canvassers.

Mr. Fulton paid high tribute to the very efficient work of Mrs. John Freeman as their Secretary. Mrs. Freeman's task was a heavy one and she had her figures and information in excellent readiness at all times.

At Mr. Ridley's suggestion Mr. Fulton explained that the total of $362,800 did not include the $285,000 worth of Bonds bought by the W. I. D. This was a special purchase and divided pro-rata between Gleichen, Rockyford Irricana and Strathmore.

Mr. Don McKinnon M. L. A. spoke briefly, complimenting the Unit on their excellent record. He said he liked to look forward to the period of reconstruction, and felt in this group of workers there is a fine back-log for planning future development.

Major Galt, as Organizer for the Army of District No. 13 told that their Unit topped the list. He said that at Vermilion where they had a group of 1000 C. W. A. C's they had had subscriptions from 998, totalling $70,000. He told some humorous incidents living camp life which he left at the judgment of the audience, as to how much "salt" should be added.

Two solos by Mr. Patrick were very well rendered, Mrs. Alice May acting as accompanist throughout.

Miss Frances Jones and Miss Lois Hanes as Miss Canada's assisted Mrs. Hughes in the Bingo Games.

The Audience adjourned to the

HOME AND SCHOOL

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION WITHDRAW FINAL MEETING

The Executive of the Home and School Association, meeting on Monday evening, decided to withdraw the final meeting for this school year, in view of the inability to carry through the Puppet Show and other program items to be contributed by visiting scholars from various district. The continuance of contagious diseases makes it inadvisable to bring children in for this purpose.

Plans were made for the early opening of activities in the autumn, and the support of all parents of school children is asked.

An opportunity to become familiar with H. S. A. aims will be provided at the School Fair.

The officers felt that distinct gains had been made during the second year of this organization; trends in educational life have been more fully discussed and in some measure understood and a wider circle of interest and participation has been established as evidenced in enthusiastic special meetings held at Nightingale and Namaka.

Further changes in educational method and training for adults of varying ages will be necessary to gear us into the post war scheme of things, so be prepared to work with this organization from the beginning of the fall school term.
